IT / Il primo mondo della collezione racconta l'anima silenziosa e poetica del Gujarat. È l'anima di Sidhpur, la città pastello, lontanissima dall'India espressiva e sgargiante che conoscevamo. Davanti ai nostri occhi una sequenza infinita di dimore vittoriane dalle facciate pastello, una di fianco all'altra, silenziose come quinte di un set.

Tutto è incanto, anche le piccole botteghe di farmacia con i mille barattoli di latta argentata. Alla bellezza di Sidhpur, alle infinite storie nascoste nella penombra delle sue case decorate, dedichiamo le nostre delicate nuance, le sfumature arachide, l'azzurro lolite, la leggera tonalità pervinca.

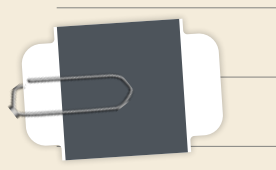

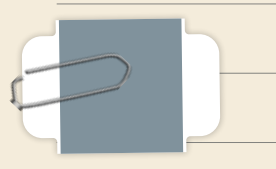

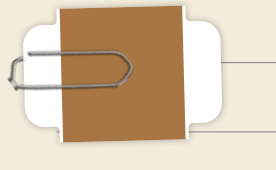

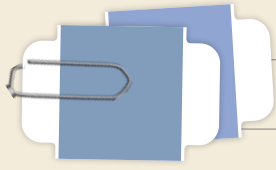

EN / The first realm of the collection narrates the silent and poetic soul of Gujarat. It is the soul of Sidhpur, the pastel city, far from the expressive and vibrant India we knew. Before our eyes, an infinite sequence of Victorian homes with pastel facades, side by side, silent as the backdrops of a set.

Everything is enchanting, even the small apothecary shops with a myriad of silver tin jars. To the beauty of Sidhpur, to the countless hidden stories in the shadow of its decorated houses, we dedicate our delicate nuances – the peanut shades, the lolite blue, the light periwinkle tone.

IT / Dedichiamo il secondo mondo della collezione all’anima artigianale del Gujarat, alle comunità femminili delle popolazioni del Kutch, ai confini con il Pakistan che tramandano l’arte della decorazione tessile da tempi lontani come bellissima espressione della loro identità culturale. I contrasti cromatici dei nostri tessuti raccontano il senso del colore delle tribù del Kutch, il tocco luminoso del lurex rame richiama la luce dei ricami Rabari impreziositi da piccoli specchi. Le incredibili decorazioni delle case dei villaggi di Hodka e Ludia ispirano l’energia dei colori, che si mescolano fantasiosamente in disegni floreali, righe e inaspettati check. Bellissimo ritrovare il motivo check, che appartiene da sempre al mondo NIÙ, negli abiti tradizionali femminili di questi piccoli villaggi. Una specialissima connessione tra mondi.

EN / We dedicate the second realm of the collection to the artisanal soul of Gujarat, to the female communities of the Kutch populations on the borders with Pakistan, who have passed down the art of textile decoration for generations as a beautiful expression of their cultural identity. The chromatic contrasts of our fabrics tell the sense of colour of the Kutch tribes, the luminous touch of copper lurex recalls the light of Rabari embroideries embellished with small mirrors. The incredible decorations of the houses in the villages of Hodka and Ludia inspire the energy of colours, which fancifully blend into floral designs, stripes, and unexpected checks. It’s beautiful to rediscover the check pattern, which has always belonged to the NIU world, in the traditional women’s attire of these small villages. A very special connection between worlds.

IT / L'ultimo mondo della collezione racconta l'anima naturale e leggera del Gujarat. La città di Ahmedabad esprime meravigliosamente la magica armonia tra umanità e natura di questa terra, ispirando grandi pattern a fiori ad effetti block print, stampe foliage, preziosi tessuti jacquard floreali. Ai colori dei fiori si aggiungono le sfumature di verde del banyan tree, l'albero simbolo del Gujarat. E le infinite tonalità del monumentale acquedotto di Adalaj, un meraviglioso labirinto di scale e sale colonnate scolpite nella pietra fino alla profondità delle acque sotterranee. Poi ci sono gli incontri. Le donne dei piccoli insediamenti tribali nell'aerea di Poshina, ai confini con il Rajasthan, incantano la nostra anima con i loro volti intensi, gli abiti che raccontano la loro storia e i bracciali in oro antico che decorano le loro braccia.

EN / The last realm of the collection narrates the natural and light soul of Gujarat. The city of Ahmedabad beautifully expresses the magical harmony between humanity and nature of this land, inspiring large flower patterns with block print effects, foliage prints, and precious floral jacquard fabrics. The colours of flowers are complemented by the green shades of the banyan tree, the symbol of Gujarat. And the infinite hues of the monumental Adalaj stepwell, a marvelous labyrinth of stairs and colonnaded halls carved into the stone to the depth of underground waters. Then there are the encounters. The women of small tribal settlements in the Poshina area, bordering Rajasthan, enchant our souls with their intense faces, clothes that tell their story, and ancient gold bracelets adorning their arms.
